THE DRY GOODS CLERKS OF NEW-YORK have held a eeting in that city for the purpose of concerting measures or procuring the closing of the stores of their employers at an earlier hour. Their complaint is, that they have not sufbeen time for either study or recreation, both so essential to heir intellectual and physical nature. The objection to their demand is, that the close employment of their time keeps them out of mischief; an argument that would go to deprive them of any moments of leisure at all for reflection and the formation of such principles as would tend to keep them in an honest, honorable and virtuous course. [Phil. Ledger.

THE LOST .- We have to mention the following additional nes as among those lost by the Erie:

Clement A. Strong, Ambrose Stratton, passengers, Col-lins, Eric Co. N. Y.; Nouh Parker, Cancaden, passenger, Allegany Co. N. Y.; A. O'Cennor, fireman, Mill Creek, Eric Co. A RIVER OS FIRE .- It can no longer be doubted that the Alabamians are waking up, as it will appear by the following article that they have succeeded in setting their principal

"While Mr. J. M. Cooper was prosecuting the removal of McGrew's Shoals, in the Tombigbee River, after boring to the depth of 365 feet his asgur suddenly dropped and enterly disappeared. In the space of a few moments a deep, bollow sound was heard, resembling the rumbling noise of stant thunder from the chasm below, and at the same in-Must gushed forth from the shaft thus made, a clear, trans-parent, oleaginous substance or liquid, which boils up very amilar to the effervescence of a boiling pot; and which, sed itself over the whole surface of the River. A quantity has been collected, and upon application of fire, it is found has been collected, and upon application of fire, it is found has been equal to the purest sperm, oil. To gratily curiosity had make further tosts, fire has been applied to the oil on the sater, and the whole surface of the River is new burning, thating a flame of most beautiful appearance, about six mitting a flame of most beautiful appearance, about half way down behes high, and has already extended about half way down o Fort Stoddard, the reflection of which upon the horizon at the presents a most sublime spectacle, far surpassing in Frandeur and beauty of appearance the aurora borealis.
